APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS TO APPLICANTS

1. Meet with a potential lender. Lender participation in RFA programs is completely voluntary, and will vary over time and throughout the state. The RFA cannot make direct loans to individuals. The RFA may only purchase a portion (called a participation interest) in a loan made by a participating financial institution. By purchasing this participation interest, the RFA is able to reduce the interest rate paid by the farmer.
2. Remain in contact with your lender as you proceed with the development of your farm business management plan.

You can only participate in the program through an approved lender. Keep them well informed. They may suggest alternatives and advise you of other considerations that could affect their evaluation of your credit needs and their credit decision.

In accordance with the Americans With Disabilities Act, an alternative form of communication is available upon request.
